

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Think you're a brain buff?

Try this crossword and test your knowledge.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

ACROSS

- Everyone has this rhythm
- Emotional brain area
- Party game by Hasbro
- "The Persistence of Memory" painter
- Ancient civilization that first mentioned the brain in writing
- Generic name of 57 down
- What a witch's brain might put on you
- Old-fashioned word for someone with mental illness
- Message from your brain's olfactory bulb:
"Your gym socks _____!"
- Female American poet who wrote "The brain is wider than the sky"
- Occupation of Woolf who battled depression until her death in 1941
- Brain region that sounds like a dance
- "Memories light the corners of my mind" in this 1973 soundtrack
- Battle cry: "Remember the _____!"
- On a _____; how a spontaneous brain might do things
- Dean Martin says it's a kick in the head
- Author of Awakenings
- He's an excellent, excellent driver
- The number of brain cells you have, approximately
- She sang "I'll Remember" for 1994 film With Honors
- Be afraid of them, very afraid
- Test to get into some grad schools
- Greek who thought the brain cooled the heart
- Where some neuroscientists conduct experiments
- Generating new ideas that may cause floods
- Of two minds
- Insect with the biggest brain, proportionally
- Catches your brain waves
- Space between brain cells
- U.S. Gov't agency that oversees aspects of brain wellness and overall well-being
- A rolling brain gathers none of this
- He thought, therefore he was
- Disorder common among war veterans
- Psychologist who conducted the Stanford prison experiment
- "You've got some _____!"
- Brain scan with a lot of magnetism
- He has a famous slip
- "Who are you? What's my name? How did I get here? What do I suffer from?"
- American composer who succumbed to a brain tumor in 1937
- _____ down; learning can do this to brain cells, removing weak connections
- Not a college for a semi-aquatic African mammal
- Psychedelic 1967 hit
- Misspelling
- Thanksgiving staple that's good for your brain
- Greek goddess of memory
- Dr. Seuss creator who said, "I like nonsense. It wakes up the brain cells"
- Opera by 70 across
- Sympathetic nervous system response that might escape
- What zombies might want
- Rind, in Latin

DOWN

- Wake up and smell this brain stimulant
- An intoxicated brain
- Spongy toy material not likely to cause head injuries
- Nerve insulation material
- He hopes you remember, remember the 5th of November
- What a Hawaiian brain might wear
- Your head may be here, especially on a 747
- Sometimes you feel like this brain healthy food, sometimes you don't
- A subway conductor might have this
- Brain reaction to chronic stress
- Brainy amino acid star of 31 across book
- The _____ Study; well-known longitudinal look at memory and aging
- Famous chicken who lived for 18 months without (most of) a brain
- His brain area is important in language
- "_____ on Your Mind"; 1963 Patsy Cline song
- Former Beatle who sang "I've Got My Mind Set on You"
- This neurotransmitter is a rush
- He has an eponymous dementia
- "Goin' Out of My Head"; 1964 hit for him and the Imperials
- Baseballer known for ALS
- "The sperm whale brain weighs 17 pounds, I _____ you not!"
- Nerve fiber
- Regulates what passes to the gray matter through a great Australian fish hangout
- Memorable flower
- 1992 Nolte-Sarandon movie featuring 6 down
- Like 26 across, "Remember the _____!"; Spanish-American casus belli
- Where the optic nerve enters the eye
- Mind them
- Queen of Carthage who lamented, "Remember me, but ah, forget my fate"
- He could be another Lincoln if he only had a brain.
- The dura mater is one (hint: it's also a homonym for a bag of potatoes)
- You need it like a hole in the head
- _____ Nation; 1994 book
- Occipital, frontal, parietal, etc.; General brain region name
- Sch. in University Park, PA, with a neuroscience graduate program
- $E=mc^2$ genius whose brain was preserved after death
- Brainless sea creature
- Shocking therapy
- Spike's famous Gage
- They never forget, supposedly
- What a religious brain does
- What you do to 82 down and 85 down; or, a brain scan
- Aquatic creature that devours its own brain
- Baby with an XY brain
- This Effect may temporarily improve memory
- "Memory" musical
- Pavlov had one
- Poke and _____; what a neurosurgeon might do during an exploratory procedure
- Abbreviation for neurotransmitter gamma-Aminobutyric acid
- Forgetful Finding Nemo fish
- Mesozoic, Palaeozoic, etc.; times before the human brain
- Mind the layperson's term for 53 across